

IRTS Radio News Bulletin Sunday February 16th 2003

Silent Keys

Sadly, we start today's bulletin with news of two silent keys. Paddy Serridge GI0PED/EI6IH passed away on Wednesday last February 12th after a short illness. Paddy was a prominent member of the Dundalk Radio Society and a former member of the IRTS Committee. We extend our deepest sympathy to his wife Jan EI7IH and his family.

Mike Murphy WB9KOY/EI7EG passed away on Sunday last February 9th in Chicago after a week long respiratory illness. Mike was originally from Carlow and returned to Ireland frequently with his wife and family. Mike was often heard on the Sunday Irish Hour on 21317 kHz. We extend our deepest sympathy to his wife and family.

Region 5 Dinner

Amateurs and their partners in the south will gather at the Silversprings Hotel in Cork City for the Annual Region 5 Dinner on Friday March 14thnext. The five-course meal will only cost 25 euro and bookings should be made with Dave EI4BZ as soon as possible.

East Cork AGM

The East Cork Group held their AGM on Monday night last and members reviewed events of 2002. Officers elected for the coming year are: Jim Barry EI8GS Chairman; Jerry Cahill EI6BT Secretary; John Barry EI8IR is Treasurer and Denis O'Flynn EI6HB is the QSL Manager. The next major event for the Group will be the CQ WPX SSB contest at the end of March. Visiting operators who wish to come and stay for the weekend are more than welcome.

EI Activity Day 2003

All EI stations are asked to make a special effort to get on the air for the annual EI Activity Day which this year is a three-day event, to be held from Saturday March 15th to Monday 17th inclusive. EI stations are still in great demand by stations trying complete their Worked EI Counties Award and many overseas stations are also collecting Worked All Ireland Squares. Some years ago, clubs were very active in getting the rarer counties on the air. Maybe this effort could be repeated again this year.

Contests in the coming weeks

Next weekends contests include the CQWW SSB 160m contest together with the Belgian UBA CW and the French REF SSB. The SSB leg of the ARRL DX Contest takes place in two in two weeks time on March 1st and 2nd.

Results of IOTA Contest 2002

The results of the IOTA Contest of 2002 are now available and show that 7 EI stations submitted logs. There were only two island expeditions, EJ4F on Inisheer and EJ5E on Inishboffin. EJ4F is the winner of the IRTS IOTA Trophy. EI7M set a new EI record score in the island section and finished in 11th place overall. EI4DW is the winner of the Hal Hodgins Trophy as the leading EI station in the 12 Hour CW section and EI7IQ wins the IRTS DX Trophy as the leading EI single operator station. A full listing will appear in the next edition of Echo Ireland. This years IOTA contest will be held on July 26/27th.
